MUSCLE SHOALS BILL FACES SENATE FIGHT
Washington, March 11 (U.S.).—Harry Ford's Muscle Shoals bill reached the Senate from the House today and immediately bumped into a strenuous opposition.
Led by Senator Norris of Nebraska, chairman of the Senate Agricultural Committee, the opposition will be directed, first, at amending the bill so that Ford will be under strict government control in manufacturing nitrates and electric power at Muscle Shoals, second, to defeat the bill, if possible, so that the government's vast interests in Alabama may not pass into private hands.

Harvard Cercle Francais Play Set for Tomorrow, Says Betty Alden

By BETTY ALDEN.
THE usual smart audience which always attends the presentation of the Harvard Cercle Francais will be in evidence tomorrow afternoon, when Molliere's "Tartuffe" will be given at the Copley Theatre.
The cast is composed of Harvard men and society girls who have spent much of their time abroad and who speak French quite as well as their mother tongue.
Two prominent buds of the season are taking part, bobbed-haired Miss Rebecca Williams in the role of "Mme. Periwinkle," and Miss Mary Olin as "Pistole."
Miss Ethel Thayer, or "Polly," as she is known to her intimates, is to be "Dorine," the Misses Mary Vinton Murray and Helen Grove are others of the cast.
Of the male contingent are John Randolph Robinson as "Tartuffe," John D. Lodge in the role of "Clement," as well as Emmet Iselin, Richard Merian, William Graves and Gordon Bell.

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND WHITMAN (Florence Hood of Hamilton) are having a most delightful time cruising in Southern waters, making Palm Beach their headquarters.
This week they have been joined on board the "Albatross" by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh de Willeburgh, Jr. of Newport, for whom they are giving a number of parties.
Apropos of Palm Beach—Reginald Boardman's host of friends will be interested to learn that he and Loris Hall have become incorporated as the Boardman Hall Company to conduct a real estate brokerage business. They are selling Miami estates at the northern extremity of Palm Beach.

SIXTEEN of the Vincent Club's most attractive girls have been selected to take part in the famous "drill"—always a crack feature of the Vincent shows—when the club presents "Strike Up" at the Opera House next month.
Last year the drill girls were perennials, but this season they are, I believe, all soldiers once more. Which recalls
"Now and Then," given two years ago, when petite Mary Weid made such a snappy little drummer boy for the soldier drill girls.
Those who will take part in this year's drill include the Misses Rosemarie Blanchard, Edith Parker, Anne Hubbard, Ellen Levering, Harriet Jordan, Polly Webster, Catherine Hall, Lorraine Leeson, Alice Lewis and Helen Hamilton, all of them buds of the past season, as well as the Misses Harriet Royce, Margaret ("Pip") Williams and Helen Clark, who made their bows last year, with the Misses Dorothy Halden, Betty Bow and Rebekah Hobbs representing an older cohort.
It is quite unusual to have so many debutantes marching in the drill. Generally the majority of girls have taken part in it for a number of years.

Society Notes
MR. CHARLES P. GREENOUGH 2nd has returned to Brookline following a two months' visit in Santa Barbara with her mother, Mrs. Hamilton Perkins.
Mrs. Andrew Robinson of Commonwealth avenue, who is spending a month in New York at the Plaza, gave a dinner there the other evening. Her guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose D. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. John Howard Child.

Colonel Francis R. Appleton, Jr., of Ipswich and New York has returned from a several weeks' sojourn at Aiken, S. C.
Speaker of the House and Mrs. Frederick H. Gillett were given a dinner at the Capitol by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Miss Alpha Mellon.

Mrs. Oscar Isidel, Mrs. Thomas A. Lockwood and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Williams have joined the Boston colony at Hot Springs.

BETTY BIRD AND SADDLE HORSE ABOUT BOSTON PEOPLE

Professor Harry W. Taylor, mathematics professor at M. T. T., leaves home in Stockholm. One of the guests this week with him will be two daughters for a tour of Europe that will not be completed until next September. He will attend the 70th anniversary of the University of Naples.
Robert G. Dodge, Fletcher Ranney, Judge Priest and other prominent Back Bay residents protested to the street commissioners the proposed erection of a big public garage in Deerfield street, near Bay State road. The petition was taken under advisement.

The Rev. Frederick W. Smith of Chicago will become permanent superintendent of the central western district of the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery League April 1, resigning from the Federated Methodist Episcopal Church and Third Congregational Church.
"Grandma"—Mrs. Maria Horton Chappell of Seekonk, believed to be the oldest lady in the country and the oldest woman in New England, celebrated her 100th birthday at her daughter's home in Seekonk. One of the guests was her son, Herbert R. Chappell, seventy-three, former Mayor of Wilmamatic, Ct.

T. Henry O'Neill, elected Waltham tax collector, only candidate endorsed by the Citizens' League, hasn't time to accept his office, he informed the selectmen in a letter of resignation. The fee would interfere with his personal business, he declared.

"Tardy taxes" have been inaugurated by Judge Utley in Worcester District Court. The first tardy defendant to feel the tax imposition were two traffic law offenders who had $1 each added to their $5 fines—the $1 additions being for late arrival in court.

Governor Cox, Mayor Curley, General Edwards and many other civil, military and naval officials will be guests Thursday night of the First Battalion, U. S. Naval Reserve, and the oldest woman in the Elks Club, Somerset street.

GRANITE STATE DELEGATES ALL FOR COOLIDGE

Senator Moses' Favors' President, but Refuses to Actually Pledge Self
Manchester, N. H., March 11.—In the primary in New Hampshire today to select delegates to the Republican and Democratic national conventions lay chiefly in the question whether this State would send to Cleveland a delegation solidly pledged to the candidacy of President Coolidge.
Of the eight Republican candidates for the seven positions as delegates-at-large all are pledged to Coolidge except U. S. Senator George H. Moses. Fred W. Estabrook of Nashua, New Hampshire, member of the Republican National Committee and a candidate for delegate-at-large, has urged a solid Coolidge delegation. Senator Moses, although he announced to the Senate recently that if chosen a delegate he would favor the nomination of Coolidge, has refused to pledge himself. Frank H. Chittie of Manchester entered his name as a candidate at the last minute after Moses had refused to change his position.
It is expected that all the Democratic delegates will go to New York unpledged. There is no content for the eight delegates-at-large, but there are seven candidates for the two places as delegates from the first congressional district and six for the two from the second district.
There is one woman candidate for Democratic delegate-at-large and two women seek election as Republican delegates-at-large.

JANITOR IS FREED IN LARCENY CASE
The larceny charge against Michael Turek, janitor at No. 46 Everett street, West End, brought by Mrs. Anne Hallow, a tenant, who accused him of robbing her of $29 as the sequel of a coal bin row, was dismissed in Municipal Court today. Mrs. Hallow used a coal bin against objections of her landlord. In an argument with the janitor over her use she alleged the janitor struck her. She said she was knocked unconscious and awoke to find $29 missing from a $100 roll she carried. The janitor admitted the argument, but averred him.

OFFERS TO DIE IN CHAIR FOR MURDERER

"Broken in Health," Philadelphian Says the Doomed Man Could Later Become Useful

Harrisburg, Pa., March 11.—Offering to go to the electric chair in place of Joseph Trinkle, convicted of murder, Walter J. Kirkwood, fifty, of Philadelphia, wrote to Governor Pritchard that Trinkle should be given him to fifteen years in prison, because when he has served his time, he would be young enough to be of much use.

The Governor referred the request to the board of pardons, which informed Kirkwood there is no law in this state permitting an innocent volunteer to take the place of a condemned criminal.

In making his request, Kirkwood stated he was "broken in health, cannot hold down a real job, and did not see that he would be of any use on earth whatever."

His motive, he explained, was to "startle humanity into a keen realization of what capital punishment means."

THE SEX HAND UNCONDITIONAL RELEASE TO FOUR ROOKIES

THREE IS SET TO PARIS

By FRED C. LANE
San Antonio, Tex., March 10.—That kid will plug up a gap in our infield that will make it real sport for a pitcher to work. He has everything necessary to put a ball club in the race and I am glad to see him dicked out in regular spangles."

Old Jack Quinn, veteran of twenty-four years of service, discussed Lee's merits after he had seen Dudley in action. "Why that ball he grabbed back of second base could be duplicated only by Eddie Collins," said Quinn, when he spoke of a certain shape of the Tulsa youngster in the contest with the Braves. "Last year it was not bad but work for any pitcher in his turn in the box. Any time a ball was hit between first and second base I knew it was certain. With Wamby at second and Lee in short field it need not be necessary for a pitcher to throw a book every third ball."

Quinn said many more good things about the Tulsa wonder, and he has reasons to express his opinion. Every man on the club is much taken by the remarkable way in which Lee works. "He is the fastest player that Boston has had in a few years. He fields the ball well, gets his throws over to the initial catch with a snap and does well with the other fellows. Duffy says: 'It is his legs. He is so fast that he will be a big help to the club.'"

Now he works like a beaver to find out shape with the other fellows. They had a day's start on him but he is young and supple and he will soon show his true worth when the infield rounds into its own. Lee played 26 games with the Braves last year and shows the results of his big league work.

With such a mate as Wamby on second, Boston can look for more double plays from this combination. Manager Folsi may him change bats and the difference could be noted in the work-out.

Lee is a left hand batter and gets plenty behind his swing. To look at him one never would take him for a ball player. A lad of his build has a tough time to break into his true ball because of his size.

Jack Quinn, who is a second baseman, declared "He is a second baseman. He is a second baseman. He is a second baseman."

The prunings Ray Massey got out at work today and as a result five of the rookies were released. Massey Schilling, Massey, Ryan and Turner will cohort on other diamonds for another year at least.

Turner was returned to the Paris team of the Killy league while the rest were given unconditional release. Folsi will continue to cut down Bob Quinn's squad every few days. Another flock of youngsters will be sent away just as soon as the minor league season opens.

One of those work-outs where spirit and courage predominated was held. A full dozen of ball players displayed their warms on the diamond more than those that attempted to play ball Sunday.

Manager Folsi is not dissatisfied with his team, but nevertheless he has been through the longest work-out of the season. Steve O'Neill, who has been behind the bat, has played first. Wamby took all the honors about second base, while Lee and McMillan held down the short corner.

The players will be in the best of shape when it's blossom time around Boston. At this early date such pitchers as Eddie Shanks, Curt Pullerton and George Murray have cut loose with their best in trade, and have in check only by J. G. Folsi, who acts like a Guardian Angel over his flock.

French Steamship Strikes on Rocks; Rescue Craft on Way to Scene

New York, March 11.—O. S. calls were flashed early today by the French steamer Tours, saying she had been driven by the fierce gale racing along the Atlantic onto the rocks at Neuvais, Cuba, and was in imminent need of two tugs to pull her off.

The O. S. S. messages and others following it were directed to the tropical radio station in Florida which was maintaining communication with the distressed steamer. The steamer Tours is of 2,500 tons, she left Dunkirk February 4 for Norfolk, then went to Wilmington, N. C.

and was reported as there February 27.

Naval communications here announced that the steamship Federal had wireless that she was enroute to the assistance of the Tours. The Federal did not give her own position in the message.

Neuvais, the port near which the Tours struck, is in the province of Puerto Principe, and is fifty miles northeast of the city of Puerto Principe. The port lies behind a bay of fifty-seven square miles.

ROOF OF METAL. H. H. MURDER CLEW

HOSPITAL DOCTORS COULD POOR

Massachusetts Homopathic Clinic and Maternity Service Also Free to Noddy

With such institutions as the Massachusetts Homopathic Hospital ready and willing to cure for poor as well as people of means, there is no reason for any citizen of Boston being treated by a quack doctor.

No one is refused admission in this hospital because of inability to pay. The hospital full charges of $15.00, and depends entirely on the patient's ability to pay, and upon selected accommodations.

The Massachusetts Homopathic Hospital started with twelve beds in 1871 and has grown until it now includes three large, fireproof buildings, containing 120 beds and two convenient homes for men and women.

"We never charge a man which would work a hardship on the patient," said Dr. Henry M. Pollock, superintendent. "Last year we furnished 102,000 days care to patients, of which 23,377 were absolutely free, while 88,633 paid only a nominal sum. This refers to the hospital only."

FREE CALLS ON POOR
Under the faculty of Boston University School of Medicine, whose members constitute the staff of the hospital, the medical students, during their graduate year, look after the poor of this particular district, and answer all calls day and night, for medical or surgical diseases or for obstetrical cases.

"This is under the immediate supervision of a resident who is paid by the hospital to go out with the interns during his first call, and to whom they report immediately following the visits in regard to the condition of the patient."

"About 4,000 such visits were made by our nurses who go into the homes of those who need nursing care. This does not include the visits by the Community Health nurse, who also work in affiliation with us."

HIGH MATERNITY BUILDING.
"If the patients can pay full or part charges for care, they may, and if not, we give them the same care for nothing."

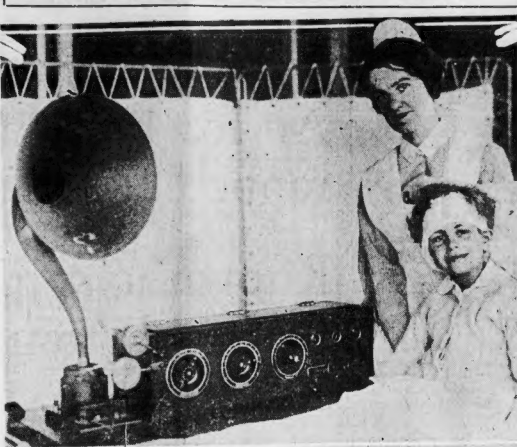

One whole building, the Robinson Memorial Hospital, is devoted to maternity cases alone. Last year 17,687 mothers were treated here, and 1,453 babies were born.

Prenatal clinics for mothers are held daily at 10 o'clock. It is urged that prospective mothers register four or five months before the birth of a child, if possible. All registering are asked to pay a fee of $5. If they are, which charge goes for the use of the delivery room at the birth of the child.

A gynecological clinic has been opened from 9:30-1:30 P. M. This is attended by an average of 130 patients a day. Special care is given to social diseases at this clinic.

FEES ARE LOW.
In the out-patient department, a charge of 25 cents is made at the Castleton, Utah, March 11.—Eighty-nine bodies had been recovered today from the No. 2 mine of the Utah Fuel Company, where an explosion occurred last Saturday, while 173 men were at work in the mine. Eighteen of them were unidentified. Search is being continued for the other bodies in the mine.

FOUR RESCUED AT SOMERVILLE FIRE
Traffic on car lines running between Sullivan Square and Winter Hill, Somerville, was tied up for more than an hour today by a fire in a two-and-a-half story frame building, No. 296 Broadway, Somerville. Mrs. George Hadley and Mrs. Louis Zambelli and her daughter and nephew were assisted from the burning building by passer-by officers, and was at a door leading to a

ACCUSED SLAYER TELLS PRAYING POLICEMAN

Concord, N. H., March 11.—A tiny bit of metal broken from the handle of an old revolver may be the instrumentality, according to the Concord police, through which Joe Shine, a colored man, will go to death on the scaffold.

The revolver was found hidden away in the livery stable where Shine, also known as George Hauser, from time to time, has been employed.

When it was taken to the police station the authorities felt it known for the first time that a few hours after the recent murder of Jesse Goldberg in his clothing store a policeman found on the store floor a small piece of metal.

The metal is of the same material as the revolver handle. Examination of the revolver revealed that a small piece had been broken from the handle. The bit of metal found in Goldberg's floor, according to the police, exactly fits this hole.

FELLS PATROLMAN.
A freckled assassin in the police station, on the patrolman the Negro asked to pray for him, almost led to a second charge of murder.

The patrolman, former State Senator Fred N. Marden, had stepped into the Negro's cell at the latter's request.

Shine had been grilling during the night by county and city authorities seeking to check up on his whereabouts on the night of the clothing store's murder.

When the examination was over, the prisoner called to Marden: "Won't you pray for me, pray," he pleaded, and the former state senator stepped into the cell and fell upon his knees.

Without a word, Shine struck the patrolman from behind with the bottle in which his coffee had been kept.

They fought hand to hand for several minutes, the officer weakened by the loss of blood. One finger of Marden's left hand was broken and his right thumb dislocated.

Shine had fought his way past the patrolman, and was at a door leading to a the police garage, when Assistant City Marshal Victor Moore stepped in and felled him with a billy.

"If Shine's brow had landed one inch higher on the back of Marden's head," Dr. Edward Sullivan says, "the Senator would be a dead man."

At Marden's house today the police man was reported to be resting comfortably.

Shine is kept in the station house because the County Jail has no room for him.

CAPT. RHEBA CRAWFORD

CRIPPLED VET WINS 'ANGEL OF BROADWAY' WOMAN SAVES 2 CHILDREN AT BLAZE

Romance Begun in Salvation Army Girl's Tent in St. Petersburg, Fla.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 11.—Rheba Crawford, beautiful Salvation Army girl known as the "Angel of Broadway," announced she is to marry Harold Sommer, twenty-nine, former Chinese man and crippled hero of the Argentine.

The romance began a year ago when Miss Crawford, fresh from her task of purifying Broadway, came here and set up her "Salvation tent." Sommer, hobbling on crutches, was one of the hundreds who attended her services.

The youth told her how he had been wounded in Chicago in the Third Division, of his life at the front, how he had been wounded and, finally, how, arriving from Chicago with only a dime, he became, in four years, one of St. Petersburg's wealthiest citizens.

The girl holds daily evangelistic services in her tent here and, as might be expected, Sommer is a daily attendant. His fortune, which had its origin in a $30,000 loan, advanced, without security, by a capitalist, continues to grow. He expressed himself as eager to "hit the tent" to the altar with the "Angel."

Miss Crawford won her title by successfully holding numerous revival meetings along New York's "White Way," challenging the repeated assertions of other evangelists that "Broadway has no soul." She is twenty-five and judged by New Yorkers to be the prettiest girl that ever appeared on Broadway.

Peabody Mother Carries Little Ones to Street as the Flames Sweep Home

Her own three-month-old daughter and a two-and-a-half-year-old boy were rescued today by Mrs. Anna Eliuk during a fire that swept through the two apartments of her home at No. 17 Fulton street, Peabody.

The rescued boy is Joseph Maryniuk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vladimir Maryniuk, occupants of the second-floor tenement, where the fire started, and the girl is her infant daughter, who was left in the care of Mrs. Eliuk, while his parents were at work. No one was in the tenement upstairs.

Shortly before noon, Mrs. Eliuk saw smoke seeping down through the ceiling of her front room. She rushed into the street, she shouted an alarm and then dashed back into her tenement. Little Joseph, frightened and choking with the smoke, was crying. She snatched up the boy and her infant daughter and fled the building.

Flames extinguished the flames after a hard fight. The damage was estimated at $12,000.

STOKES' PHOTOS ON BEER CIRCULARS
Trenton, N. J., March 11.—New as well as dregs are proving a thorn in former Governor E. C. Stokes' political flesh. Denied the privilege of addressing the New Jersey conference of the Methodist Episcopal church because members threatened to book him on his prohibition views, he now has had to protest to the Anti-Dry League against use of his picture on beer circulars. The circulars also carry pictures of Senators Edge and Edwards, Governor Silmer, former Attorney General McCann and James R. Nugent.

This new discovery, made from a Japanese product is certainly a wonder the way it draws out inflammation from a pair of swollen, burning, itching feet. It takes the aches and pains out, then the corns or callous grow and lift off.

Hard corns, with corns or callous between the toes, just stick up and lift off as easy. It is wonderful. Just think! Not one bit of pain while applying Ice-mint or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

After applying Ice-mint to your corns, again and run the rest of blood from your body to your feet.

Ready to use your old corns, blisters and burning raps for that corn of yours is sure to be lifted off. It is ever been the magic touch of Ice-mint.

Ice-mint cures such a distressing, itching, swelling feeling in the feet that you will not get with relief.

Ice-mint is the real Japanese secret for drawing out inflammation from your feet and drawing out corns and callous from your feet. It is really a wonderful discovery.

JEAN FORD

HAPPY COMEDY PRESENTED BY GLENN HUNTER

By NICHOLAS YOUNG

LONG Journey on rolling waves of smiles attended the movement of Harry Leon Wilson's "Merton of the Movies" from the printed story to the stage at the Hotel, where last evening Glenn Hunter set himself up in high favor with a house full of friendly town folk.

This captivating story, remodeled for the stage by the master columnist, George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly, gave full evidence that, clear entertainment, even when it concerns Hollywood, achieves its own reward in the form of happy, enthusiastic audiences.

"Merton of the Movies" proved itself a tarty arrival, but after an evening with Mr. Hunter and his companions all was forgiven.

SEA OF LAUGHS.

It is doubtful if even the movie themselves could provide a greater simplicity than the Merton so admirably played by Mr. Hunter. It takes the speaking stage to put up that kind of a package and make everybody like it.

But with all his simple faith in an ideal, loaded with heartburns, utes and disappointments, there was something so humanly fine in the character that resistance to his appeal was out of the question.

And with all this pathetic faith to inspire you and tug at your heart you rode through the evening on a sea of laughs that sent you home with aching sides.

FINE BIT BY HUNTER.

Mr. Hunter's own contribution was of quality that raised your faith in the theatre and in the younger generation of players. No play of the season has presented youth and its delicious sincerity with more invigorating force. It was easy to pass over incoherence in the face of so much rollicking entertainment. Merton may have been pitifully simple, but he was clean and wholesome and you couldn't help enjoying him.

And what a cast! Small town characters, movie stars and incidental folk up into the twenties. Old and tired friends were there like Edward M. Payer, Helen Royton and J. K. Murray, while other lights were held up by Joan Ford, Fanchon Campbell, Joseph Lath, Marnette Cullender, Albert Cowles, John Webster—and onto the bottom of a long list.

Ford caught the fancy of her audience by her sympathetic support of Mr. Hunter.

"Merton of the Movies" is a story of boundless faith in an ideal—a boisterous, happy comedy without a single regret.
